Good afternoon. In regards to my attempt to conduct your first unannounced observation for your abbreviated evaluation today, I will gladly return to capture a more academic lesson to rate your work more appropriately because I entered your classroom at 11:33 and students were left unattended until 11:55.

I do want to mention that in order to maintain safety with all of our students in class, please provide supervision for your students if you are going to be unable to return to class to continue class.

Please let me know if you have any questions or concerns. Have a great day
