3 things:

- 1) You might want to edit that last question and give folks a spot to add their name.
- 2) If there is interest I'm happy to spin any of these categories with an MYP twist.

3) Less related, I've noticed that you've been including a PD blip in the cup-of-joe, would you be interested in adding a weekly MYP piece to that? If so, I would love to use that vector to deliver some MYP language that goes beyond the unit planners.

Happy Sunday! This is about the time I get the Cup of Joe organized each week! I would love some MYP support to add into a section! I will put in a general best practice unless you have something in mind to add this week? I'm sorry for the late notice, but I will take it if you read this before about 4 on Sunday :)

Thank you so much for your help!!
